CONGREGATIONAL CONNECTIONS

FIRST UNITED METHODIST CHURCH OF WARREN

PASTOR'S PEN

Hello Church,

From the moment I joined the United Methodist Church in 1992, I felt like I was part of a community of faith making a difference in the world. The thing I valued most was our willingness to show up and get our hands dirty as we worked toward ushering in God's kingdom here and now. This is laid out in our Social Principles, "the prayerful and thoughtful effort of the General Conference to speak to the issues in the contemporary world from a sound biblical and theological foundation." John Wesley set the example for us as he believed that our faith was a combination of personal and social piety. Believing that we cannot simply be observers, we must care enough about people's lives to take a stand and respond.

This past week, the Michigan Conference of the UMC did that as we gathered together in Lansing. You can find pictures of this event on our Facebook page and on pg. 11 of the newsletter. This year's social justice issue was mental health. Last year, 421K people were unable to access mental health care in the state of Michigan alone. There are several bills being presented to help combat this. We were able to speak to our representatives asking for their support as well.

Next Sunday is Palm Sunday, the celebration of Jesus' triumphant entry into Jerusalem on a donkey, a symbol of peace. Palm Sunday is followed by Holy Week, a week of contemplation as we seek to better understand the meaning of his suffering, death, and resurrection. As we enter into these final days of the Lenten season, may we also take time to reflect on what it would mean for us to embody the ministry of Christ, a ministry that included social justice for the least, the last, and the lost, and to live that out every day.

Blessings, Rev. Melissa J. Claxton

March is Reading Month

We can participate by setting up a time to read to the children of Green Acres Elementary. Contact the pastor if you would like to take part in Reading Month.

Another Serving Opportunity

Unfortunately, we live in a world that requires us to lock the doors once worship begins. At the same time, we do not want to exclude anyone from worship just because they may be running a little late. That's where you come in.

We need people willing to man the front desk during worship. The task is simple. Be on the lookout for late comers and let them into the building. If someone comes that could cause potential harm, alert the authorities. If you are interested, we will offer further instructions.

You will still get to participate in worship. It is streamed to the desktop computer. You can see everything on the screen. If interested, please contact the church office at (586) 264-4701

Sewing for Missions

Sewing for Missions has offered us the wonderful opportunity to combine teaching with serving.

The beauty of this service opportunity is that you don't have to know (or even want to learn) how to sew. We have several people who come in to help cut and iron fabric.

Working together to create HOPE!
Join us on the 2nd and 4th Saturday from 10 to noon.

CONGRATULATIONS AND HAPPY ANNIVERSARY

Indeed, congratulations and happy anniversary to Warren First United Church, 2024 being year 25 of serving MCREST, the Macomb County Rotating Emergency Shelter Team, the homeless in Macomb County. We have housed women and children in our building, provided meals during Covid to those housed in a motel and most recently served in the Women and Children's Center in Mt. Clemens. We have often said that each year is different because each year we serve a different group. This year is really different, as we will be serving MCREST MAY 5-12 instead of our usual week in November. Our responsibilities will be the same, breakfast, lunch and dinner each day of the week.

We are blessed to have members of the church who are willing to prepare and serve these meals, but they need help from you. On April 14 there will be a "pop-up" coffee hour during which you can reacquaint yourself with the MCREST program, sign up for special needs and any services for the week.

Because it is easier and more economical for the "kitchen crew" to shop for necessary items for the week, we are again asking you to consider donating what you might be willing to spend if you were doing some of the shopping. Any amount will be greatly appreciated (and graciously accepted)

Traditionally a month before MCREST WEEK we have officially begun finalizing plans for our week, celebrating with hot dogs and chips, so on April 14 be in church for an additional coffee hour and see what you can do to help make another successful MCREST Week. Remember that YOU are important in this endeavor because- NO ONE CAN DO EVERYTHING, BUT EVERYONE CAN DO SOMETHING.

Witness for Peace in Israel and Palestine This Lent

Since the October attacks in Israel, the faith community has been a steadfast witness for peace, urging our elected officials to call for a ceasefire. By Colleen Moore (February 25, 2024)

I began my role as Director of Peace With Justice at Church and Society just over a month after the October 7th attacks on Israel and the ensuing Israeli bombardment of Gaza. So far, it's been a solemn Lenten season as the bombing of Gaza continues. This Lent, we cannot let attention wane and must continue taking action for peace and justice. Below is a summary of recent geopolitical updates as well as what you can do to take action for peace during this Lenten season.

Recent Geopolitical Updates: ICJ ruling: After South Africa filed proceedings against Israel alleging violations of obligations under the Genocide Convention, the International Court of Justice called on Israel “to take all measures within its power” to prevent genocide and ensure access to humanitarian aid. It is notable that the Court ruled there is plausibility of Israel committing genocidal actions.

Suspension of funding to UNRWA: Following allegations that 12 employees of the United Nations Relief and Works Agency (UNRWA) were involved in the October 7th attacks, many donor states have suspended funding for the organization. While the allegations are worrying, and should be investigated, UNRWA is the primary organization providing aid for millions of Palestinians in Gaza and the region.

Congress and the Biden administration: The United States continues to provide military aid to Israel, greenlighting its bombing campaign of Gaza, and Congress has been debating giving billions more in aid to Israel with no accountability measures. But we're seeing grassroots pressure for oversight working, with the White House issuing a National Security Memorandum ensuring that safeguards exist with respect to arms transfers. However, this remains merely rhetoric as it's been clear that Israel is targeting civilians with U.S. weapons.

Ceasefire talks and regional escalation: Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu rejected an offer from Hamas, which included a ceasefire of 4.5 months, release of hostages, Israel withdrawing troops from Gaza, and an end-of-war agreement. This comes amidst further escalation in the region, with Iran-backed militias targeting American service members, retaliatory U.S. strikes against sites in Iraq and Syria, Houthis attacking international shipping lanes, and the U.S. and allies striking Houthi targets in Yemen.

What The United Methodist Church Says: “We must insist that the first moral duty of all nations is to work together to resolve by peaceful means every dispute that arises between or among them.” 2016 United Methodist Social Principles ¶165.C Furthermore, as United Methodists, “We seek for all people in the Middle East an end to military occupation, freedom from violence, and full respect for the human rights of all under international law.” United Methodist Book of Resolutions # 6111, “Opposition to Israeli Settlements in Palestinian Land.”

There is no military solution to the violence in Israel and Palestine, and we must prioritize solutions to root causes of conflict instead of militarized solutions that engender further violence.

What GBCS and Members of The Faith Community Are Calling For: All of these developments mean our calls for peace and justice remain more important than ever. We call on all parties to: Negotiate an immediate, permanent, bilateral ceasefire. Ensure immediate and adequate access to and provision of humanitarian needs.

Secure the immediate release of all civilians being held hostage and ensure international protection for all civilians, including civilians in Gaza and the West Bank. Abide by international law and investigate claims of violations of domestic and international law. Support the demilitarization of the conflict by withholding further arms shipments to all parties. Prioritize de-escalatory measures instead of taking retaliatory actions that would beget more violence. Take steps to end the occupation of all peoples in the Middle East and build a lasting, durable peace in the region.

What you can do to call for peace: Engage in a prayerful show of solidarity this Lent by participating in a Gaza Ceasefire Pilgrimage, where people around the world will walk the length of the Gaza strip. Review our Faith and Facts card on Israel and the Occupied Palestinian Territories. Read recent statements Church and Society has signed on to, including Churches for Middle East's November 13 statement and February 15 statement. Use our action alert to urge your members of Congress to support a ceasefire and de-escalation.
